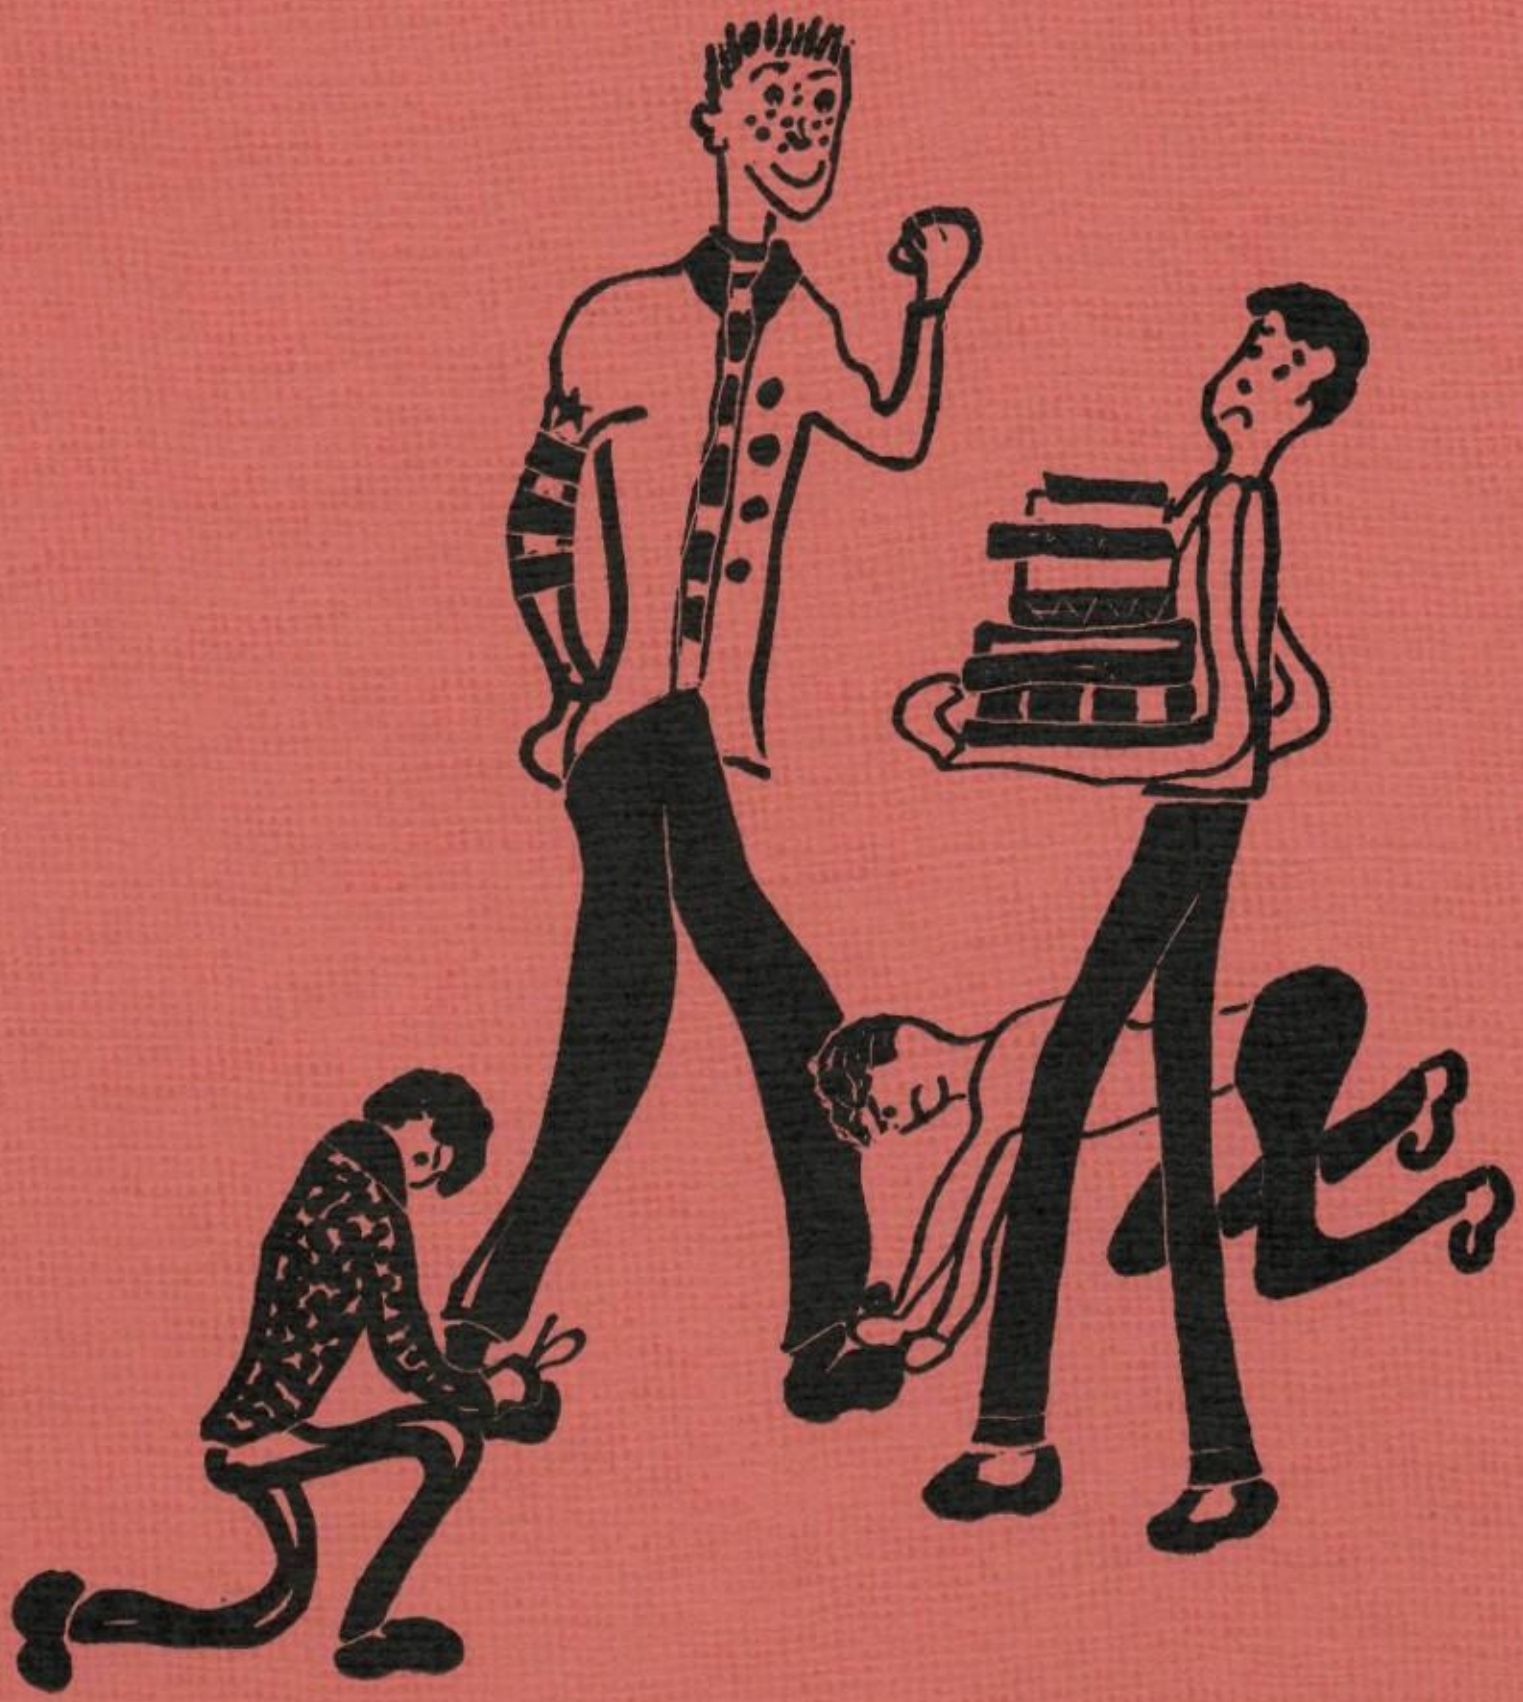
Miss Hitchcock



Miss Hitchcock,

I'll miss you loads when I leave, but I'll never forget you.

Hope you have lots of good baseball players like me.

Vonnie

Miss Hitchcock,
It's not time when I've had so a lot of fun your class and Take care of yourself and be back and visit you.

FOREWORD

We laugh and sing, play and work, dream of the future, plan for the future. But the greatest of all, we live for today.

It isn't an easy task to live in our world today—not even for us teen-agers. There is still unrest in the world. Boys have to face a future which now includes military service. The girls will face sacrifices, too. No doubt thoughts of the future occupy a great part of our thoughts, but nevertheless, we have not been willing to overlook the present for it. We have lived rich, happy lives with no handicap to the future—rather, it is an important asset.

We also realize the sacrifices made by those before us. We will not forget Corporal Jerry Avina, Sargeant Bob Taylor, or the cause to which their lives were given.

We teen-agers of 1952 are indeed ready for the future.

The soutnwest wing housed many classes.

We hope this book is as loaded with memories as Carroll's car is with kids.

THE ADMINISTRATION DELIVERED THE GOODS

Mr. Clayton Castle, superintendent of Lindsay schools was an enthusiastic supporter of all high school activities.

It has become the careless custom of recent years to refer to all young people en masse as "teen-agers" as though all the persons passing through the turbulent, exciting years were alike as so many peas in a pod.

Actually each "teen-ager" is a distinctly individual personality. The changing complex of tasks, talents, ambitions, and emotions makes school life intensely variable and interesting. Truthfully we can say that each school year is a non-repeating pattern of work, defeat, accomplishment, and triumph. A teacher's work is therefore never humdrum or repetitious.

The school year 1951-52 can never fade completely in our memories as long as we have this fine book, the result of many hours of painstaking work, perseverence, and artistic achievement. Thanks to you, Comet Staff, for a job well done.

C. A. CASTLE
Superintendent

Teen-agers? No, the word is not in my dictionary. I looked, but they are in my heart and much a part of my life. In fact, I see no one but teen-agers day in and out. That's the way I like it. I wouldn't have it otherwise.

And who are these teen-agers who give so much life and color, vigor and vision to our school and community? The word has become synonymous with high school and those who go there. Every campus swarms with them either as they wander two by two or gather in groups of twenty and fifty, and they always seem to radiate faith in the present and hope for the future.

If I had but one wish granted to me
A teen-ager again I surely would be.
But of course you all know and can easily see
I am next to and kin of this life full and free.

ZAFON A. HARTMAN,
Principal.

Mr. Zafon Hartman was our principal, adviser, and friend.

WITH 'POMP AND CIRCUMSTANCE', THE SENIORS MADE, IT THROUGH THEIR LAST YEAR

Top row: R. Scott, reprsentative; V. Keyes, representative; G. Dunn, vice-president; J. Ball, president. Second row: J. Pugh, treasurer; B. Turnage, representative; J. Osborn, secretary.

Seniors Norma, Robert, Janet, and Randy enjoyd their lunches on the senior bench on Sadie Hawkins' day.

The senior class of 1952 is at least different. We admit we are not the best, the brightest, the handsomest, the most active and highly talented class that has ever been graduated from Lindsay High School. However, under the reign of Queen Elizabeth, our loyal mascot, we have made our accomplishments in several fields. Members of our class have placed high in everything we have undertaken.

Remember the Spring Sing of '50 and the success of our Sophomore Amateur Hour? The fame of several individuals of our class spread near and far. Two F. F. A. Queens, Peggy Brown and Margaret Berry represented our class well. We also claim the first Miss L.H.S., Jackie Harth. She, too, made a great name for our class. These are a few of our outstanding members who help to round out one bang up collection of kids.

We did paint our bench to perfection and then had one swell time on our great senior ditch day.

As we leave L.H.S., knowing those who will remember us, we will always look back and grin as we "remember the good old days."

Our junior class will never be forgotten, that's for sure. Under the leadership of our president, Don Kellogg; vice-president, Arel Quessenberry; secretary, Stepheny Cairns; treasurer, David Schutt; and our four advisors, we think we had just about the best class and year ever.

We hold the claim that never in a thousand years will our junior class play be excelled in which six of us had the leads. We showed our talent even more, though, when we pocketed the ten dollar first prize in the Spring Sing.

Of course, our sweaters are by far the best looking yet, and we have the cutest emblem which was designed by Mavis Eastin.

But our high light of the year came when we presented the annual junior-senior prom and banquet for the graduating seniors. The theme was one of the future and it will be many years before they forget the honor bestowed upon them that night in May.

Right, above: Danny strutted his stuff to help the juniors take first at the Spring Sing. Right, below: The banquet and prom committee were the following: Top row: D. Schutt, M. Eastin, B Brenner, G. Todd, A. Quessenberry, B. Ceresa. Second row: I. Pitcock, B. Keller, S. Cairns, C. Quessenberry, D. Depew. Third row: M. Wood, W. Helton, G. Laurie, C. Waldron.

The Sophs of '54 have really had a grand year in old Lindsay High and have really made things go.

We started things off with a big bang at our Sophomore Amateur Hour. There was so much good talent on stage that they should have called it the professional hour.

We Sophs also stepped into the ring at the Lions Club speaking contest with Jim Richey, Sandy Ewing, Duane Larson, and Bill Earley taking their bows.

We sent Kenneth Branstetter, a fellow student who was seriously injured in an automobile accident, a pair of ear phones so that he could listen to the radio more while in the hospital. Later we sent a box of candy to him, and his pals agreed it was good.

Our super advisers, Miss Hostetter, Miss Hitchcock, Mr. Snasdell, and Mr. MacFadzen, have boosted us in all of our fun and folly.

OUR FIRST FRESHMAN CLASS BEGAN

This freshman class made history as being the first ninth grade of ole Lindsay High. We've sure had a lot of fun being here and we think we have contributed some to this school.

We paraded our talent in high style at the frosh assembly and you saw us in those speech class plays. A freshman took top honors in the Sophomore Amateur Hour and members of our class received all prizes on Sadie Top row: C. Jackson, A. Bruno, G. Kellogg, B. Ceresa. Second row: C. Webb, D. Rueda, and P. Richey served on the freshman class council.

IT'S HISTORY WITH A BANG

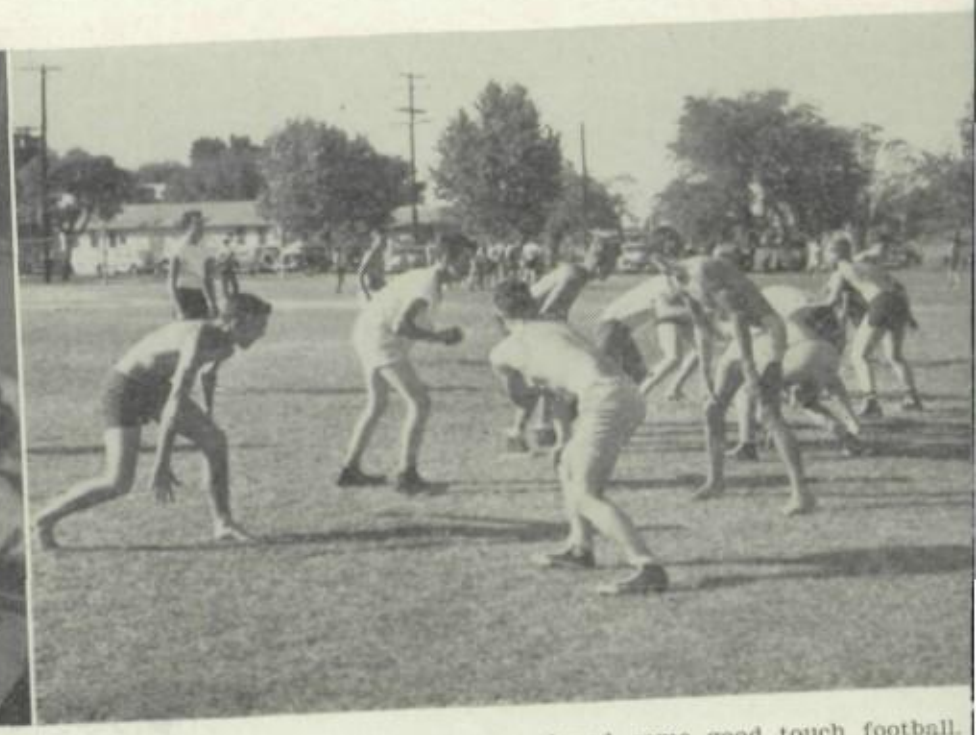
Hawkins' Day.

May third we had our big freshman frolic. We spent a Saturday out of doors and ended the day with a big, successful dance.

Bill Ceresa guided us and Dick Rueda was our vice-president; Clark Jackson, treasurer; Peggy Richey, secretary; and Celia Webb, social chairman. These kids along with the other students have done a great job.

Darrel, Deanna, John, and Diane made four cute entertainers for the freshman entry in the Spring Sing.

Mrs. Woodward's seventh period class made U. S. History come to life.



Boys' physical education classes played some good touch football.

Bill, Jimmy, Bill, Roxanne and Jessie painted in art.

Puzzled looks came from Mark, Wilma, Joetta, Beth, and Bob in chemistry.

SEVEN PERIODS OF WORK, STUDY, AND FUN

WE CRAMMED DOWN THE SOLIDS, BUT

MOST OF THE TIME WE HAD FUN

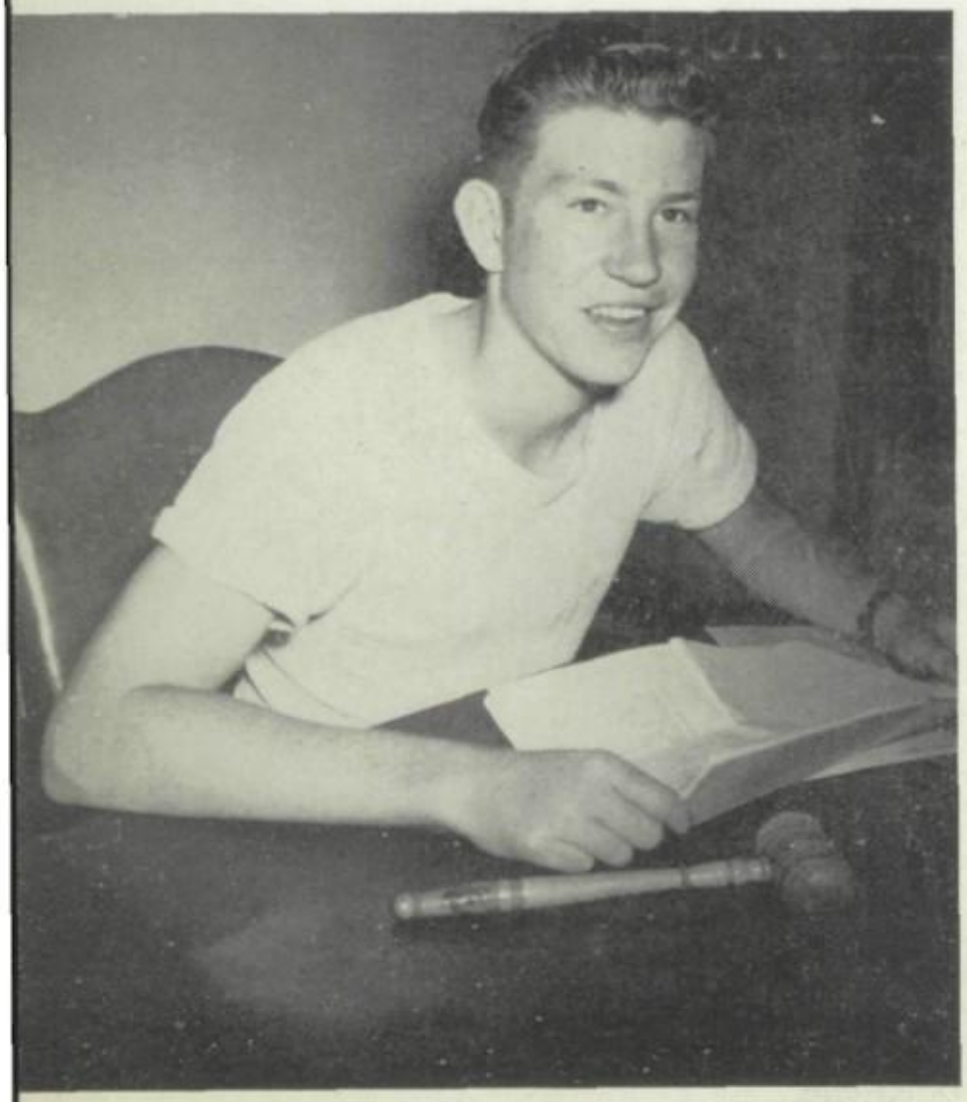
Sharon Lander, secretary of welfare, Martha Leeper, student body secretary, Jim Fuller, commissioner of athletics, Charlene Griffis, secretary of assemblies, and Helen Thompson, student body treasurer, went on record for loads of service.

THE STUDENT COUNCIL



Geary Austin led the student body through a very successful year.

Hi, Kids!

Let's take a glance back at what the cabinet has accomplished for the year 1951-52.

First, let's look at the way the hard working yell leader, Marilee Ford, started and carried out the idea of a pep club. This club lacked a few in number, but still they did lots of yelling.

Next came the Teen-Age Center which was the result of more than one working. From all reports I think this was a big success.

Another thing which contributed much to the school was the cleaning up of the sunflower seeds. This was carried out by hard working Larry Ballew with the fine cooperation of the students.

This year we brought the constitution up to date on some items and made some minor changes on others. We have Martha Leeper to thank for this.

Near the end of the year with the help of Mr. Hartman we started the a la carte service in the cafeteria. This gave the kids a chance to grab a snack between classes.

I want to thank Mr. Hartman and each member of the student cabinet for their fine cooperation and help in making the year 1951-52 a big success.

So long.

THE COMET STAFF COMPILED THE

The editor, Evelynne Watanabe, and adviser, Miss Williams, reviewed the yearbook's progress.

Along with compiling a collection of this year's memorable events, we have endeavored to illustrate the teen-ager's view of the world as we live it today. The staff worked hard and well to do this, and we hope that you will get as much satisfaction from this book as we have had in providing the yearbook for you.

We'd like to thank Miss Williams for all her wonderful advice and help. Miss Williams always seemed to be able to make a molehill out of a mountain in regard to the ump-teen problems which came up all too often.

The literary staff carried out their part in the book wonderfully, as did the art staff. The art staff turned out some very nice things for our annual.

A complete sellout was the work of the business staff. The photographers had a terrific job which lasted the whole year. With their super co-operation and work we were able to give you this colossal collection of pictures.

Special thanks went to Joline Osborn for doing all our typing.

I'd like to thank you for the opportunity you gave me to edit this book for you. I hope you like it.

GIRLS' LEAGUE SET A PACE FOR L. H. S. ACTIVITIES

Mr. Meaders helped wash dishes at the Girls' League Christmas dinner at which the League invited the boys.

Our Girls' League is a wonderful organization. Every girl here at L. H. S. belongs to it automatically. We have accomplished a lot this year and we are happy about this.

Nila Specht was our very capable president and she had a fine cabinet to assist her. Diana Bruno was our vice president, and she acted as MC for our assemblies. Our secretary was Vonnie Raley, and LaVerne House took care of all our money.

Our assemblies, we thought, were tops; and Diana Bruno did a fine job as assembly chairman. We had assemblies for several special days, Halloween, Armistice Day,

As brains, we sure had a good time this year. We were co-hosts for the fall C. S. F. convention. Kids from approximately fifteen schools enjoyed an afternoon at the city park. The first semester officers were Evelynne Watanabe, president; Martha Leeper, vice-president; Jackie Harth, secretary-treasurer.

The second semester members spent a day at Fresno State. We also contributed forty-five dollars to the Comet. The big wheels were Cecil Waldron, president; Joline Osborn, vice-president; Jackie Harth, secretary-treasurer. Miss Allison Hostetter was our adviser.

THE ECHOING L DELIVERED THE NEWS

As each edition of the "Echoing L" made its weekly appearance, we of the literary staff developed our journalistic knowledge from a small pebble into a broad, learning area.

The "Echoing L" was always the welcomed publication here at L. H. S. and one which was great fun to produce.

FEDERATION WAS BUSY ALL YEAR LONG

Trying to hold their own with the Girls' League the Boys' Federation made a few changes this year. They began with the revision of their constitution. By the previous constitution all federation officers were elected at the beginning of each school year and thus the boys did not get their names in the handbook. Now the officers will be elected at the same time as the Girls' League officers and their names will be entered in the handbook.

Under the supervision of Steve Hanigan and "Tex" Meaders, the boys have taken interest in various projects. Some of these projects seemed small, but they served their purpose which was to keep our school looking nice and running smoothly.

Besides the every day things, as keeping the grounds clean and names off school property, the federation undertook jobs concerning the welfare of our fellas. Things like keeping the showers in the boys' P. E. working and soap in the containers were extras, mainly through the efforts of President Larry Ballew.

The federation's president, Larry Ballew, came through again when he was appointed to handle the ever present "seed" situation. Under his persistence and a little persuasion this headache was stamped out almost entirely.

GIRLS' SERVICE CLUBS WERE A CREDIT TO THE SCHOOL

Here in L. H. S. we have four service organizations for the girls, the names of which are Toppers, for seniors; Stirrups, for juniors; Spurs, for sophomores; and Boots, for freshmen.

The purpose of these organizations is to instill a desire to be of service to the school by doing odd jobs around the campus. We earn points for doing such jobs as helping with dances, parties, and booths. Forty points are needed to become a member of one of these four organizations.

THE BOYS' SERVICE CLUBS WORKED HARD FOR POINTS

For the boys of L. H. S. there are four service clubs falling under the titles of Card Kids, Card Plebes, Cards Junior Grade and Cards Senior Grade.

The worthwhile purpose of these clubs is to help work up an enthusiasm and pride in keeping our school and the surrounding campus clean, and to stimulate a desire to be of service to the school by being a club officer or, helping to plan and take part in the many school activities.

FUN, THRILLS, AND ANTICIPATION MARKED ALL

The Block L Society, currently composed of fifty-seven members, is for athletes who have made one A, two B, or three C letters in the same sport. It is entirely an honorary organization to which it is a privilege to belong.

Our adviser this year, Mr. Brown, assisted by Miss Hostetter, coached, pleaded, and pounded out of us one of the most entertaining and profitable productions ever staged by an organization of this school—a musical comedy entitled "Hearts and Gowns."

though all played a swell game. The games of the year were with Strathmore. We lost both, but they were real thrillers.

We had a grand time at the folk dance playday in Visalia and at the basketball playday in Strathmore. We really showed them what we could do. Some of the girls of G. A. A. got a good lesson at Fresno in refereeing.

THE JUNIOR RED CROSS SAW THE NEEDS AND

We, the members of the Junior Red Cross, are proud of our organization.

We have sent our annual gift boxes to the children of Europe. We made stuffed toys for the sanitarium in Springville.

Our student leaders were Janet Cosmey, Randy Scott, Vonnie Raley, and Gayle Luallen, our adviser, Mrs. Wylie.

Left: On the Junior Red Cross Council were: president, J. Cosmey; secretary, V. Raley; adviser, Mrs. Wylie; treasurer, G. Luallen; and vice-president, R. Scott.

F. F. A. officers: L. Lane, G. Scambler, G. Austin, G. Marlow, Whisnand, and V. Phariss surrounded Margaret Berry, F. F. A. eetheart.

Jack Tasier was shown with the first prize Lindsay F. F. A. booth at the Tulare County Fair held in September.

THE F. F. A. BROUGHT HOME THE BACON

Beginning with our annual initiation we had a swell year as members of the Future Farmers of America.

We entered exhibits at the county fair and came out on top with lots of ribbons. Margaret Berry, F. F. A. sweetheart, was honored guest at our banquet. We ended this outstanding year as champions at the annual F. F. A. basketball tournament in Visalia.

FEDERATION WAS BUSY ALL YEAR LONG

Trying to hold their own with the Girls' League the Boys' Federation made a few changes this year. They began with the revision of their constitution. By the previous constitution all federation officers were elected at the beginning of each school year and thus the boys did not get their names in the handbook. Now the officers will be elected at the same time as the Girls' League officers and their names will be entered in the handbook.

Under the supervision of Steve Hanigan and "Tex" Meaders, the boys have taken interest in various projects. Some of these projects seemed small, but they served their purpose which was to keep our school looking nice and running smoothly.

Besides the every day things, as keeping the grounds clean and names off school property, the federation undertook jobs concerning the welfare of our fellas. Things like keeping the showers in the boys' P. E. working and soap in the containers were extras, mainly through the efforts of President Larry Ballew.

The federation's president, Larry Ballew, came through again when he was appointed to handle the ever present "seed" situation. Under his persistence and a little persuasion this headache was stamped out almost entirely.

GIRLS' SERVICE CLUBS WERE A CREDIT TO THE SCHOOL

Here in L. H. S. we have four service organizations for the girls, the names of which are Toppers, for seniors; Stirrups, for juniors; Spurs, for sophomores; and Boots, for freshmen.

The purpose of these organizations is to instill a desire to be of service to the school by doing odd jobs around the campus. We earn points for doing such jobs as helping with dances, parties, and booths. Forty points are needed to become a member of one of these four organizations.

THE BOYS' SERVICE CLUBS WORKED HARD FOR POINTS

For the boys of L. H. S. there are four service clubs falling under the titles of Card Kids, Card Plebes, Cards Junior Grade and Cards Senior Grade.

The worthwhile purpose of these clubs is to help work up an enthusiasm and pride in keeping our school and the surrounding campus clean, and to stimulate a desire to be of service to the school by being a club officer or, helping to plan and take part in the many school activities.

FUN, THRILLS, AND ANTICIPATION MARKED ALL

The Block L Society, currently composed of fifty-seven members, is for athletes who have made one A, two B, or three C letters in the same sport. It is entirely an honorary organization to which it is a privilege to belong.

Our adviser this year, Mr. Brown, assisted by Miss Hostetter, coached, pleaded, and pounded out of us one of the most entertaining and profitable productions ever staged by an organization of this school—a musical comedy entitled "Hearts and Gowns."

though all played a swell game. The games of the year were with Strathmore. We lost both, but they were real thrillers.

We had a grand time at the folk dance playday in Visalia and at the basketball playday in Strathmore. We really showed them what we could do. Some of the girls of G. A. A. got a good lesson at Fresno in refereeing.

Our initiation and dance was the gala event of March 28 followed by the annual Lions Club banquet for us.

Our hard-working officers for the year were Bill Weddle, prexy; secretary-treasurer, Dan Graham; sergeant-at-arms, Don Kellogg.

THE JUNIOR RED CROSS SAW THE NEEDS AND

We, the members of the Junior Red Cross, are proud of our organization.

We have sent our annual gift boxes to the children of Europe. We made stuffed toys for the sanitarium in Springville.

Our student leaders were Janet Cosmey, Randy Scott, Vonnie Raley, and Gayle Luallen, our adviser, Mrs. Wylie.

Left: On the Junior Red Cross Council were: president, J. Cosmey; secretary, V. Raley; adviser, Mrs. Wylie; treasurer, G. Luallen; and vice-president, R. Scott.

Right: E. Watanabe, M. Wood, J. Givan, and H. Randall entered their paintings in the International Red Cross art exhibit in the interest of world fellowship.

F. F. A. officers: L. Lane, G. Scambler, G. Austin, G. Marlow, Whisnand, and V. Phariss surrounded Margaret Berry, F. F. A. eetheart.

Jack Tasier was shown with the first prize Lindsay F. F. A. booth at the Tulare County Fair held in September.

THE F. F. A. BROUGHT HOME THE BACON

Beginning with our annual initiation we had a swell year as members of the Future Farmers of America.

We entered exhibits at the county fair and came out on top with lots of ribbons. Margaret Berry, F. F. A. sweetheart, was honored guest at our banquet. We ended this outstanding year as champions at the annual F. F. A. basketball tournament in Visalia.

In January, 1950 we organized the Bible Club in L. H. S.

The club has met again this year. We held our meetings in room 2 at 12:05 every Friday. We have had four assemblies. Our first one was a film, the other three were musicals. The "Musical Moores" gave us the first of these. Louie Rhoden with the "Campus Crusade" came next. At our last assembly were two of our local pastors and their wives bringing us some good music.

As our leaders this year we chose Don Cary, Pete Wood, Audrey Steele, Grace Noel, and Ruthann Crawford.

AND SO IT WAS THE PEP CLUB WHICH BURSTED WITH VIM, VIGOR, AND VITALITY

Pep Club's first officers were B. Williams, secretary; S. Cairns, president; and M. Ford, student adviser.

In the Pep Club we started out with one objective in mind, to increase school spirit, and we think we have succeeded!

Stephany Cairns headed our group, Barbara Cox served as vice-president, Jackie Marlow as Secretary-treasurer, and Marilee Ford helped as a student adviser.

We sold basketball booster buttons, and our club pin was a red and green one which said "L. H. S. Pep Club" on it. Members of our club helped decorate goal posts during football season. We learned new yells; we did our best to keep spirit high at the games, and we had a wonderful time!

THE CHORUS

THE BAND

GAVE US MANY MUSICAL TREATS THIS YEAR

We chorus kids have really had a full and prosperous year under the direction of Mr. Motter.

We have entertained many of the town's different organizations and amused them with our clever lyrics, tunes, and harmony.

The high light of our year was the combination band and chorus show. For this important event we had an appreciative audience which packed the auditorium.

We wound up our year with the band and chorus festival in Tulare. At this we sang "Stout Hearted Men"; "Now Let Every Tongue Adore Thee", "The Lord's Prayer", and "This Is My Country."

Top row: D. Rueda, H. Rueda, D. Kellogg, D. Armstrong, S. Blue, D. Tisthammer, D. Haines, G. York, D. Becker, R. Bryant. Second row: S. Adams, D. Greer Fought, H. Owen, G. Laurie, C. Griffis, L. Fourth row: S. Garcia, K. Jensen, J. Freeman, L. Engelking, S. Farlow, W. Kinder, S. King, J. Halstead, A. Harrison. Fifth row: A. Pitcock, D. Murray, C. Webb, D. Marlow, D. King, V. Copeland, D. Wright, D. Berry.

The chorus provided worthwhile entertainment at our band and chorus show.

BLARED AND SWEETENED TO SUIT EACH OCCASION

All of Lindsay High was shining with pride when our band came home from the Exeter Grape Festival flashing a gold cup with "First Place" inscribed on it.

After hearing the trumpets blaring and the drums beating so grandly, we know that Mr. Richard Motter has been an excellent leader, Joan Givan an able prexy, and that Eleanor Morris has really strutted her stuff as student director. They and the other band members have done a wonderful job for us of Lindsay High by making it "the grandest band in the land!"

The high school band was a part of the annual band and chorus show.

Hillbilly cuties were Audrey Hartman, Joyce Bohnisch, Darlene Marlow, and Diane McClure.

Left: Roberta Maselli and Shirley Charlebois were sweethearts. Center: Shirley Farlow won top honors. Right: Wanda Kinder and Harry Rueda danced the tango.

AND EVERYONE BACKED UP OUR TEAMS

JUNIORS FROLICKED THROUGH "N

Our Junior Play, "Not In A Thousand Years," was really tops. Gifford Keeth played the lead, the part of "Junior," a high school boy who was having his first date, and Diane Krag made a very convincing little brat sister, who managed to mess up the evening for him. Ruthann Crawford was the object of his affection and the rest of the fine supporting cast included Carol Moorhead, Janet Cosmey, Gene York, LeRoy Lane, Don Kellogg, Marilee Ford, Charlene Griffis, Jackie Marlow, Jerry Wood, Randall Bryant, David Schutt, Diana Bruno, and Barbara Cox.

The people who helped behind stage were Gary Todd, John Dotts, and Douglas Poe, stage crew; Don Worthington, sound effects, and Randy Scott, who assisted wherever needed. They deserved a lot of credit.

SENIORS TRIED TO STALK

Left: The talented actors of the Sr. play were C. Griffis, D. Krag, J Wood, G. York, L. Lare, D. Bruno, C. Moorhead, and J. Cosmey. Right: The antics of J. Wood, C. Griffis, D. Bruno, G. Keeth, and G. York in the senior play provided hilarious entertainment.

T IN A THOUSAND YEARS"

Center: Gene, Carol, and Janet watched Gifford shave and Diane blow bubblegum in the bathroom mirror. Right: Barbara, Charlene, David, Leroy, and Marilee watched Don, as Buzz crawled out of the barbecue pit in the junior play.

"THE MAN ON THE STAIRS"

Hardworking stage crew J. Dotts, G. Dunn, G. Todd, and D. Poe received helpful instruction from Mr. Snasdell, center.

For our money making scheme of the year, we seniors presented the mystery comedy "The Man on the Stairs."

The plot revolved around a college girl, portrayed by Charlene Griffis, and her aged aunt, played by Diana Bruno, who had inherited an old mansion, and the boy friend, Jerry Wood.

The plot began to thicken when the aunt, whose hearing was phenomenal, heard footsteps and saw a man on the stair landing. An old desert rat and a magician, played by LeRoy Lane and Gifford Keeth, definitely didn't help in solving this mystery.

Gene York played a lawyer, and Carol Moorhead, Diane Krag, and Janet Cosmey all were relatives who added to the suspense of the play.

SCHOOL TIME FUN

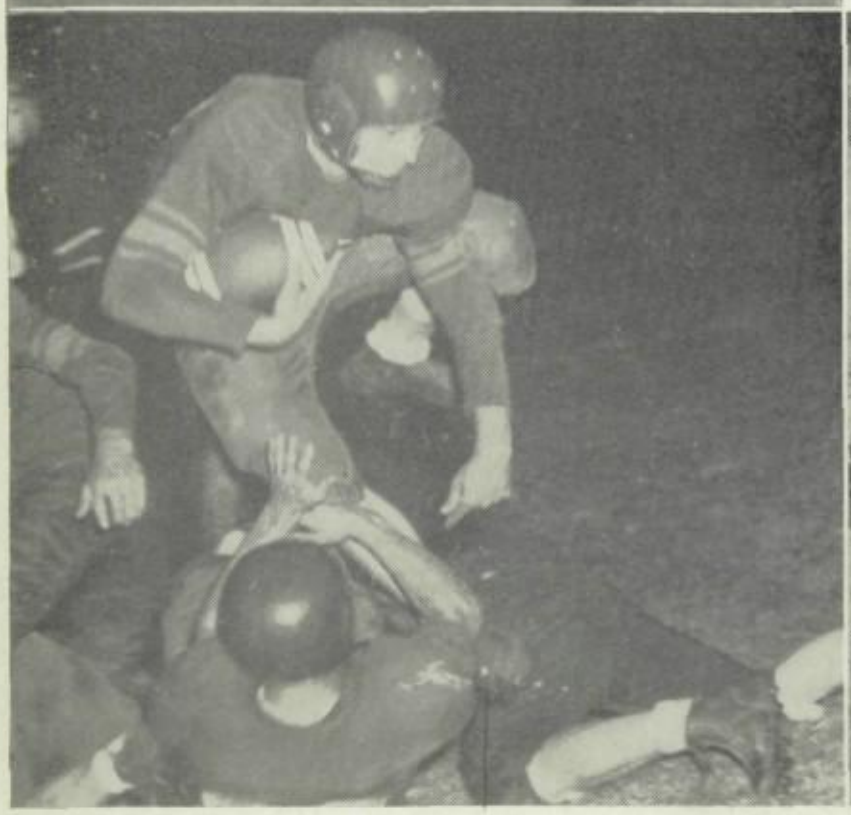
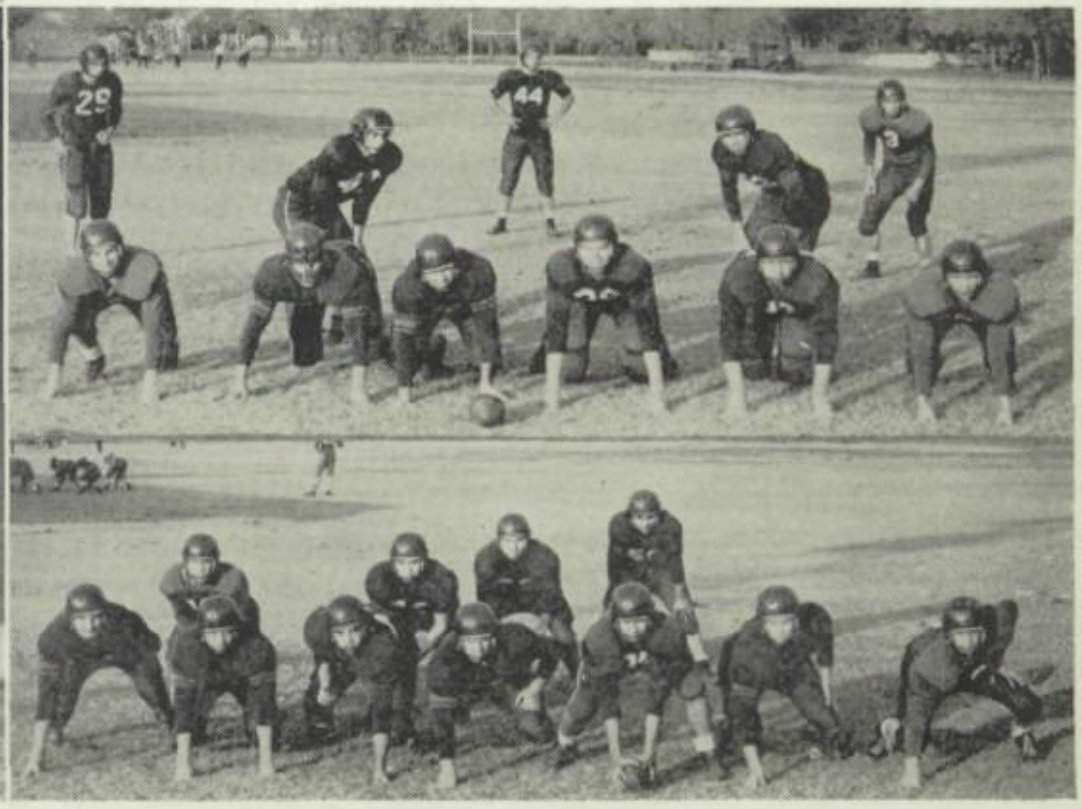
CARDINAL GRIDDERS





The lust to win inspired the gridiron greats to prove we can still play football.

Exeter fell beneath the Cardinals' cleats for the first time in eight years. Then a newcomer to Lindsay, Reedley, took the upper hand and won their first victory over the Cardinals. A heartbreaker was lost to Woodlake in the first league tilt, but the Cardinals bounced right back and stopped Strathmore cold. Traveling to Avenal the Cardinals took a close one by scoring in the final seconds. Ther. came the hardest defeat of the season. Under protest the Cardinals lost a one point decision to Orosi. Downhearted, the Cardinals lost the last game to Dinuba.

We are proud of our showing in "B" class football. The Cardettes walked over all league competition to take championship.

Reedley, which was a practice game, was the only foe that managed to win over the Cardettes, and this they did only by a few points. Playing inspired ball throughout the season the junior gridsters romped to victory again and again. Exeter, Woodlake, Strathmore, Avenal, Orosi, and Dinuba were all defeated by our Cardette champions.

CARDS DELIVERED A TROPHY

We're still cheering the fine teamwork our A class basketball squad displayed.

Under the conscientious guidance of Coach Bill Butterbaugh, we tromped down the courts to win the championship of the Southern Shasta Division to gain the right to play Kingsburg from the north for the small schools valley championship.

Although we didn't win this game, the experience and honor which we gained more than compensated for our hard work.

CARDETTES HAD A GOOD SEASON

Undaunted by pre-league play the Cardettes opened the season with high hopes. Winning three out of the first four games of the season the future looked very bright. We dropped the next league game by a close margin, but came back to win the next. Then something went wrong. Not clicking, losing by close margins to teams we had beaten before, the Cardettes wound up in third place.

BABY CARDS PUT UP A GOOD FIGHT

We of the "C" class didn't end up on the long side of as many games as we thought we should this year, but it was all a lot of fun.

Under the able coaching of our own "Mike" Maichrowicz, the C class team came through with a fairly successful season in spite of the loss of last year's veterans. We won four and lost six games.

We elected freshman Bill Ceresa as our captain, and Dick Rueda was high point man for the season.

AND LATER BASEBALL FURNISHED THE EXCITEMENT

With a top notch coach, Frank Skadan, and players anxious to make good, this year's baseball team got off to a good start when we took Avenal in our first game. We had to play each of our five league opponents twice during the season.

Bob Ceresa, our second baseman, led the boys as captain this year.

As we went to press, the team had two games left to play and was holding second place in the league.

TRACKSTERS DUG IN THE CLEATS AND

With spikes all sharpened and wings stretched to fly, our local speedsters circled the oval for fame and Lindsay High.

Out of the three classes, the "B" squad ranked first with the A's and C's running neck and neck for second place. Track competition was something terrific this year and Coach Bridges was honored to have Jack Crump, Ron Buenafe, Claude Turner, and Dalton Reid qualify for the Big Valley meet in Visalia.

THE "MERMEN" SWAM IN

Under the coaching of Elmer Brown, this year's "B's" were the strong class. We started the season out by taking the third annual Orange Blossom Festival relays for the third year. Our team was composed of many promising freshmen and veteran sophs and juniors, who, paced by co-captains Danny Brown in backstroke and diving and Bill Earley in freestyle, hope to make a clean sweep of it this year by taking the league, county, and valley meets.

Our "A" class has not done as well yet this year as we had hoped to, but we have made up for it considerably by beating many strong teams. This year's captain was James Wilson.

TENNIS HAS TOP-NOTCH

High fences guard the court lest the swift flying balls sail outside. The players serve swift and hard. The ball soars across the net only to be sent flying back. That's tennis!

We're proud of the fact that we are the Southern Shasta Division Champions and have been outstanding in tournaments. Of course we had good captains, Harold Anderson who was also top on the tennis ladder, and Joan Givan who headed the girls. Stephany Cairns topped the girls' ladder. Next to them came Sharon Lander and Randall Bryant.

Since tennis is no easy game, we have had to practice hard before we could enter any tournaments and play so outstandingly. But since it was Lindsay kids and we had such a good instructor as Mr. Hanigan, well, it wasn't hard at all to bring home the medals.

To one of my favorite teachers
I know you are going to miss me next year & I will miss you too. Have fun and be good.

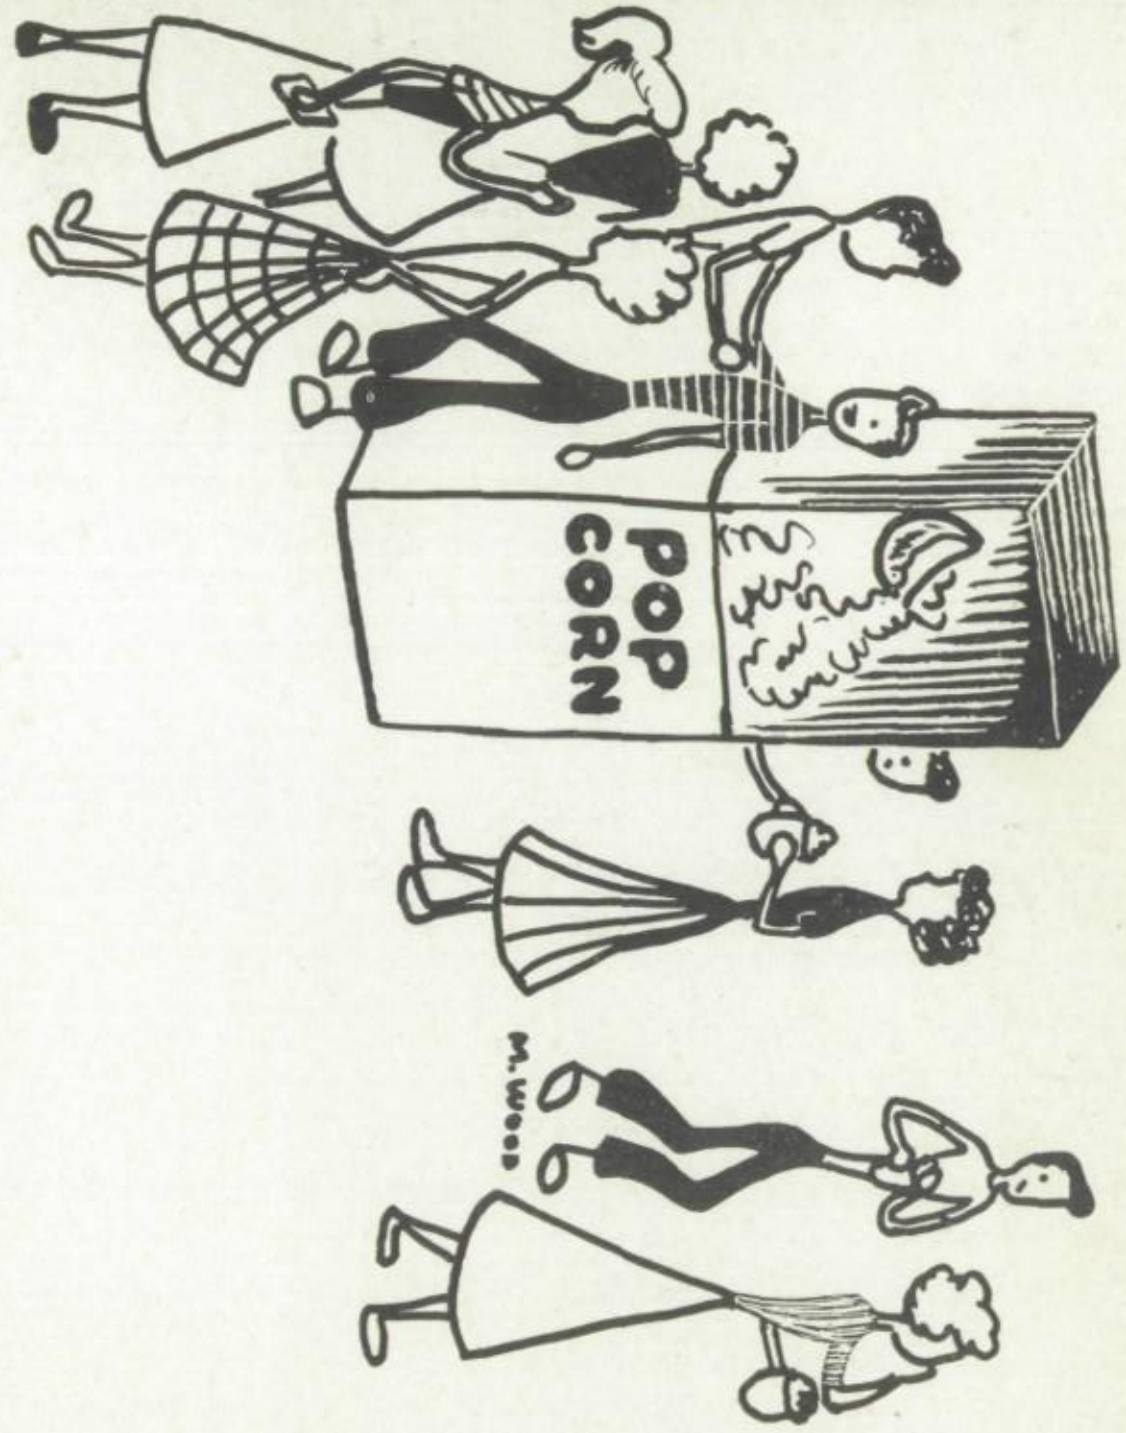
Barbara Tasier



We're off for the future.

To Miss Hitchcock,

I guess I'll finally have to admit it. You've been a wonderful teacher and friend. Who will I argue with next year? Anyway you'll probably never even miss us old seniors. Be good and don't get married - (who's gonna ask you??)

I'll miss Ya!

Love,
Sally Garcia "52"

Miss Hitchcock —

I'll miss you next year.
I won't be able to come see you next year or any other year. I'm moving away this summer. I guess you'll be glad to get rid of me. I was going to dance this year, but we didn't have dancing.

Love,
Clara

Miss Hitchcock —

I certainly will miss you next year.
I've really had fun the two Class and have enjoyed being a P.E. Asst.
I hope by next summer I'll really know how to swim

Love.
Georgia Beck

Miss Litchcock -
I will sure miss you next year but I guess
they want to get rid of us here at J.H.S.
Thanks for your guidance and I hope to be seein' you around - Love, Jac
